As part of our commitment to top tier service, we have conducted our Daily Safety Checks on your systems every morning this past week.

The checks identified one or more errors in your systems. Our technical team was notified of the error(s) at the time and will rectify any outstanding problems as soon as possible. We will contact you with further updates as they are available and to let you know when any outstanding problems have been resolved.

Details of the status of all of your systems are provided below for your information.
